DOLLY SPANKER OUT TWICE.

FINISHES THIRD IN THE FIRST AND WINS THE LAST RACE AT BENNINGS.

"Two Races a Day" Stunt Becoming Popular— Miller's Saturday Success Brings Him a Multitude of Backers—Fine Weather.

Washington, D. C., November 26.—Running a horse in two races the same day seems to be a good rule here, at any rate it has worked with profit to the trainer adopting such tactics. Thursday New York ran second in two races with a long price about him the second time. Today Tom Healey sent Dolly Spanker to the post in two races. In the opening race this gelding ruled a slight favorite and was just beaten out by Pretension and Avanuteer. Healey sent him back in the closing race and, with Miller up, he was the easiest sort of a winner over indifferent competitors. He was again the favorite, going to the post at 7 to 5.

After Miller's good record of Saturday the hero

After Miller's good record of Saturday the hero worshipers flocked to his mounts, but the shrewd speculators were inclined to be careful, looking for a setback for the lad. The public made Avaunteer, his mount in the opening race, a 11 to 5 shot, when with any other boy up he would have been at least 8 to 1. Miller could not quite get him home, but I'retension only beat him by a matter of inches. Miller then won the third race with Firebrand and the closing race with Bolly Spanker, taking two out of four races in which he rode.

The weather was more like September than November and a splendid crowd was in evidence. Dolly Spanker was the only winning favorite. A well-planned coup was upset when Pioneer fell in the steeplechase. He was backed from 5 to 1 to 2 to 1, but came to grief at the first fence.

There will be a number of horses soid in the puddock here Thursday, including Lori of the Vale and several two-year-olds from the barn of Perry Belmont.

MAHER THIRD IN ENGLAND'S JOCKEY LIST.

London, November 26.—The close of the racing season finds Higgs, the English jockey, heading the list of winners with 150 victories. Madden, another English jockey, is second with 104, and "Danny" Maher, the American rider, is third with 103. There is no doubt that Maher would have been second had he not been out of the saddle for a fortnight because of his accident during the summer and had he not left England before the season ended. It is pointed out that he is the only jockey it would have paid to "follow," as an investment of $5 upon all his mounts would have yielded a profit of $115.

New York, November 26.—Danny Maher, the jockey, has returned from England. He is at present at his old home in Hartford Conn. He will remain in America until about March 1. He will ride in England again next year for Lord Derby.

MAY REFUSE HARDING'S ENTRY.

New Orleans, La., November 26.—It is doubtful if the horse Harding will be permitted to start here if his owners ship him from Shreveport. He was shipped to Baltimore immediately after being claimed at Churchill Downs, but the stewards at Pimlico refused to permit him to start because of unsatisfactory proof of his ownership. It was rumored at the time that he was claimed that E. E. Farley had furnished the money with which to buy him. From Baltimore he was shipped to Houston, Tex., and from there to Shreveport.

BOOKMAKERS IN LINE AT NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, La., November 26.—The bookmakers in line at the Fair Grounds are: Henry Haines, Charles Cella, A. Kyle, N. Becker, Lee Wagner, Phil Bollinger, Oscar Bachman, Fred Cook, George Watkins, Galbraith & Co., Dominick Tortorich, Tom Shaw, Charles Brockmiller, T. W. Hemenway, W. Chiscoln, Harry Gardner, Jakie Marklein, James Jackson, M. Foley, Joe Brill, G. Lindan, Sam Stephens and J. Greenwood. The field books are operated by Walter Gum and Tod Cella.

CELLA INSPECTS HIS YEARLINGS.

New Orleans, La., November 26.—Louis A. Cella spent Sunday at Memphis. The purpose of his visit was to inspect the big string of yearlings Henry McDaniel is training for him at Montgomery Park. He expressed himself as pleased with the condition of the youngsters. Several of these horses will be shipped here for two-year-old racing after January 1, but the best of them will be reserved for the campaign on the eastern tracks next season.

WILL KEEP A SHARP EYE OUT FOR DRUGS.

Los Angeles, Cal., November 26.—Dr. Lucien W. Young, veterinarian for the city of Los Angeles, will be the official veterinarian at Ascot Park. It is the purpose of the management that the examinations for evidence of drugs in suspected horses shall be more systematic and more thorough than in the past.

MILAM'S HORSES ARE AT MEMPHIS.

Memphis, Tenn., November 26.—Another consignment of young thoroughbreds reached here from Kentucky, including fifteen head owned by J. C. Milam and eight head belonging to Dr. Tankert,

Must Wait Until the Jockey Club Stewards Pass
Upon His Case In December.

Oakland, Cal., November 26.—Jockey Herman Radtke, who arrived from the east yesterday, was denied the privilege of riding at Oakland today. This was due to the gram by President Assistant Secretary Club, replying to a query: "Radtke's suspension until the December meeting of stewards of the Jockey Club."

The promised reappearance of the famous rider was one magnet that attracted a big crowd to the track and his failure to ride the horses of J. O. Keene, notably Mansard, created general disappointment and kept many intending bettors off the aged cripple, which won a fast and game race with McIntyre in the saddle.

The feature of the afternoon's racing was the brilliant performance of Native Son, which captured the fifth race in stake-horse fashion. A high wind again prevailed during the day and this materially affected the races from a time standpoint. Several window panes in the southern end of the grandstand were blown out, such was the force of the gale.

Jockey McIntyre was set down two days by starter Richard Dwyer for misbehavior on Madden in the third race.

Sam Hildreth, who had partially decided to release jockey Knapp for his failure to win with Logistilla in the handicap Saturday, gave the luckless rider another chance on Van Ness today. Second to the outsider E. M. Brattain was the best he could do, although no fault could be found with his handling of the prohibitive first choice.

BEST THREE-YEAR-OLD AT NEW ORLEANS.

The winner of the Inaugural Handicap on the opening day of the Crescent City Jockey Club's meeting is a good colt and likely to rank in the first flight of horses raced at New Orleans during the course of the couring winter. Third in the very fast Futurity of last year and winner of two Derbys this year are credentials to be viewed with respect. Belmere was bred by John E. Madden and is a buy colt, by the Futurity winner, Ogden—Nahma. Last year as a two-year-old, he started in eleven races without winning and ended the year a maiden, but deemed a promising youngster despite his ill fortune. He was third in the Futurity, beaten a length and a head by Ormondale and Timber, ran second to Juggler for the Autumn Stakes at Sheepshead Bay and third to Benevolent and Charley for a purse at Gravesend.

His first start this year was in the Carter Handicap, won by Roseben at Aqueduct, April 16, in which he was a 20 to 1 chance and cut no figure. His next start was in the Larchmont Stakes at Belmont Park. With 115 pounds up he finished first by three quarters of a length in front of Rose of Gold, 110. Red Eye was third and nine ran unplaced, the sever furlongs of the race being run in 1:27. same track he ran unplaced in a purse won by Old Faithful and in the Withers Stakes, won by Accountant in 1:384. At the Gravesend spring meeting he ran fourth to Burgomaster, The Quail and Pegasus in the Carlton Stakes. At the second Belmont Park meeting Larabie beat him a half length for a purse at seven furlongs, run in 1:25%, Woolwich Belmere was almost knocked to his was third. knees by Entree and would have won but for this. Then he was taken to Buffalo to run in the Buffalo Derby at Kenilworth Park. This he won beating Minnie Adams easily by four lengths, running the mile and a quarter in 2:07% with 122 pounds up; Hyperion II., was third and Henry Watterson and Lotus Eater ran unplaced. He closed at 9 to 1 in the betting and Minnie Adams at 11 to 20.

Taken back to Gravesend he ran unplaced in two sprints over the short three-quarter course, both of which were won by Halifax, then at his best. Then he won the Brooklyn Derby at a mile and a half over a muddy track, beating The Quail by twenty lengths. King Henry, beaten off, was the only other starter. The Quail was favorite at 7 to 10 and Belmere closed at 9 to 5. The race was run in 2:37 and was very fast for the going. The Quail was a good colt then, but had no chance with Belmere on such a track. This race was run. June 16 and Belmere did not start again until September 28 at Gravesend, running fourth in a dash of a mile and a sixteenth won by Ed Ball. Then he won his next three races.

At Brighton Beach, October 6, over a heavy track he defeated Anneta Lady, Mandarin, Deutschland and five more at a mile and a sixteenth in 1:48%. At Belmont Park, October 10, he was easily first from Belle of Jessamine, Onatas and six others at the same distance in 1:46, leading all the way and running the first mile in 1:39%. Then, with 110 pounds up, he won the Pierrepont Handicap Jamaica, defeating Dishabille, 126; Coy Maid, 112; Angler, 106; Good Luck, 112; Cederstrome, Ostrich, 110, and Martin Doyle, 114. The track was slow, distance one and one-eighth miles, an the time 1:545. In the Southampton Handicap, Hot Toddy beat him a head. This was and W. Miller rode the winner, at 117 pounds, Belmere having 115 and James Hennessy up. Then he ran unplaced in the Aqueduct Handicap and the Election Day Handicap at the Aqueduct fall meeting. His next and last start was in the Inaugural. record is to date:

JOCKEY RADTKE IS NOT ALLOWED TO RIDE. HOW THE BREEDING BUREAU WAS FOUNDED.

It Is the Result of a Thorough Investigation and Is Bound to Prove Beneficial.

New York, November 26.—As the Breeding Bureau of the the Jockey Club is becoming more generally known, various inquiries as to its origin are being received daily, and they are generally coupled with a query as to the advantages of thoroughbred blood and some illustrations of its merits.

and some illustrations of its merits.

The Breeding Bureau of the Jockey Club, which was organized last April, is not a Quixotic or experimental idea, as might be imagined, but is the result of careful investigation as to the real benefit of an infusion of thoroughbred blood into the coarser strains. This investigation was begun by the chairman of the Breeding Bureau fully a year before he introduced the resolution which was the foundation of this important department of the Jockey Club of the state of New York.

In the first place, foreign countries where such departments have long existed in connection with their governments were asked as to the results and in all cases the answers were entirely satisfactory. In England this movement is called "the government stallions," and announcement is made where each stallion will stand, the fee for service and name of the gentleman in charge of each horse, and advertised in the agricultural papers of the country. In each case such advertisement reads: "The Government stallion —— will be permitted to serve a limited number of half or cold-blooded mares at a service fee of £5 and a small groom's fee."

The result of this system is the great hunters, the superb gig and carriage horses and the perfect chargers for which England is famous.

From France advice came that this branch of the department of agriculture was even further advanced and races were given, the winner to be sold to the government for use as a government stallion. The same result has been achieved in Germany, Austria and other countries.

The pedigrees of the Kentucky saddle horse (a distinctly American product), were thoroughly investigated and probed into, as were the pedigrees of Lady Suffolk and many of the kings and queens of the show ring, only to again find that thoroughbred brood predominated.

All these facts and many more were thoroughly investigated by the chairman of the Breeding Bureau and his associates before the formation of the bureau.

M. H. Tichenor, of the firm of Tichenor & Newgass of Chicago and New York, who handle hundreds of horses of all kinds annually, said in a public interview in discussing the Breeding Bureau: "This will prove a great boon to the breeders of New York state. The thoroughbred will naturally step higher, look better and wear longer than any other breed of horses, and in a few years it will enable us to buy this horse right here at home, and we can afford to pay for him, for in our business when we can furnish just what is wanted we can get our own price, so we will naturally pay the breeder and raiser well."

VON TROMP IS THE TOP WEIGHT.

Los Angeles, Cal., November 26.—Weights for the Jonathan Handicap, which is to be the feature of the opening of the Los Angeles Jockey Club's winter meeting at Ascot Park Thursday next, were announced by Secretary Boden this afternoon. The race is at one mile and a sixteenth and has thirty-five nominations. Top weight of 122 pounds is assigned to Von Tromp. Good Luck comes next with 120 pounds and Deutschland is third on the list with 117 pounds.

Everything is in readiness for the opening. Presiding Judge Hamilton and Ed Cole, who is to be his associate in the stand, have arrived. Jockey Koerner got in from Louisville today.

THANKSGIVING HANDICAP WEIGHTS.

New Orleans, La., November 26.—The weights for the Thanksgiving Handicap at one mile and a sixteenth were announced today. Minnie Adams is given top weight of 120 pounds, Glorider, 116; Belmere, 115; Monet, 114; St. Valentine, 113; Tartan, 112, are topweights. There are forty-two nomina-

ELLISON'S HORSES READY TO RACE.

Memphis, Tenn., November 26.—Trainer Brazier left Montgomery Park for New Orleans this morning with seven head from the string of C. R. Ellison. They are ready to race. The other seven, including five yearlings, will remain here until after January 1.

PUBLIC GETS THE MONEY.

FOUR FAVORITES SCORE FOR THE TALENT AT THE NEW ORLEANS FAIR GROUNDS.

Gladiator Sustains the Confidence of His Backers—

Nicol Rides Two Winners—Colonel Bart lett is Bid Up—Racing Gossip.

New Orleans, La., November 26 .- The bookmakers were given a severe drubbing at the Fair Grounds this afternoon. Four heavily backed favorites rewarded the confidence of the public while the winners of the other two races were extensively supported by a party of sharpshooters. Especially was this true of Gladiator. His backers secured as good as 6 to 1 at the opening of the betting. Valentine, a locally owned horse, took the feature race in a spectacular contest through the stretch with Jack Dolan. The latter was a slight favorite over the winner, but St. Valentine probably carried the most money. He was a good horse today. After waiting on the pace set by Dr. Spruill for the first three-quarters of a mile, passed him in a flash and standing a final drive gamely, outlasted Jack Dolan. Jockey Nicol's followers opened the day auspiciously. He rode Buren Arnold and Whippoorwill to handy victories. The easterners failed to land a purse until Glamor spreadeagled her opponents and won the fifth race pulling up. Colonel Bartlett's victory in the closing race cost his owner the purse, Sam Louis bidding him up $300 over his entered price of $700. He was retained.

Announcement was made that jockey Hogg, whose license was held up pending further investigation as the Jockey Club's refusal to permit the young-ster to ride at Baltimore, would be permitted to accept mounts here. It is said that the reason the Jockey Club refused to grant Hogg a license was that he had been recommended by undesirable persons.

Among today's arrivals was Carl Michell, who met with much success the past season riding in Russia. He has applied for a license and intends to ride here this winter. Captain B. C. Bunbury, O. G. Parke, J. C. Ferriss, Jr. and M. Deatherage arrived today with their horses, Henry Avis, who is probably the oldest turfman in the business at the present time, arrived today from F.ansas City. He says his last visit to the Crescent City was fifty years ago. "Things look quite different here now," said he.

In the now," said he.

Jockey Oregar, suspended at Douglas Park for a faulty ride on Ida Davis, has been restored to favor.

Jockey Perrett, under contract to H. McCarren, Jr., will also be permitted to accept mounts.

E. W. Moore arrived with his string from Washington. He says Willie Shields will not campaign a string here this winter.

E. S. Gardner's string of racers has arrived from Nashville and will be quartered at City Park.

JOCKEY MILLER BUYS AN AUTOMOBILE.

Washington, D. C., November 26.—Jockey Walter Miller will leave here for San Francisco next Saturday night. He is under engagement to President Tom Williams of the New California Jockey Club for the winter and will begin riding at Oakland immediately upon his arrival. "Packy" Fitzshmous, who makes Miller's engagements, today placed an order with a Chicago firm for an automobile to be delivered to Miller at San Francisco not later than December 15. The price of the machine was about $4,000. Just before he left New York for the Bennings meeting Miller purchased a cottage at Gravesend for $16,000. It will be his residence next season.

FISH HAWK AND LITTLE MIKE ARE DEAD.

New Orleans, La., November 26.—J. H. McCormack sustained a loss today by the death of the two-year-old Fish Hawk. The colt died of lung fever. He was considered a good one and an offer of $5,000 made recently for him was turned down. Fish Hawk started twenty-six times, was first once, second nine times, third seven times and unplaced nine times.

Little Mike, owned by Sam Parmer, also died from lung fever this morning. Both horses were stabled at City Park.

COOK'S YEARLINGS ARE IN NO DANGER.

New Orleans, La., November 26.—Fred Cook's yearlings are quartered at Nashville. Cook said today that they are all doing well. They had a slight touch of distemper, nothing more and were never in serious danger. Cook will leave here shortly for a visit to his farm and will be gone about two weeks.

SELLS YEARLINGS FOR GOOD PROFIT.

New Orleans, La., November 26.—John Marklein sold today to H. M. Ziegler, of Cincinnati, for the reported price of $2,500, the yearling black colt, by Star Shoot—Ravenna. Marklein bought the youngster at the Sheepshead Bay sales for $550. The colt will be shipped to Lexington, Ky.

MAJOR THOMAS' WILL IS TO STAND.

Lexington, Ky., November 26.—The suit recently instituted by W. K. Howe to break the will of the noted turfman, Major Barak G. Thomas, has been compromised out of court, the contestant receiving $4,500. Major Thomas left the bulk of his estate to his old negro servant, "Aunt" Margaret Pryor.

SALVIDERE'S SIRE SELLS FOR ONLY $500 Alcedo Goes for $150-The Butterflies Brings $1,500

-Broomstick Is to Be Sold Today.

Lexington, Ky., November 26.—The Fasig-Tipton Company's seventh annual Kentucky sale began today. The consignments disposed of were from the farms of John E. Madden, Baker & Gentry, David Gideon, James Galway and others. A total of 140 head brought $45,575, Belvidere, sire of Salvidere, sold for only $500, while L. V. Bell's Alcedo brought only $150. The Butterfiles, one of the few Futurity winners ever offered at auction, brought $1,500. W. Harry Brown and Max Samuelson were buyers, indicating that Senorita Stud is to be continued. Broomstick will be sold tomorrow with the others of the estate of Captain S. S. Brown. The summary of the sale:

Winner—Br. f, by Ben Strome—The Humber (trained by T. E. Mannix).

Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Belle Strome opened a big gap at once and, showing great speed, led all the way, but at the head of the stretch she bore out and took New York with her. Hagan made a claim of foul, but it was not allowed. New York is in good form, ran consistently and finished gamely. Scarfell showed early speed and tired in the stretch drive. Leonard Joe Hayman showed scant speed, was never a contender and ran out at the head of the stretch. His race was much below his true form and should be thrown out. Andrew Mack can do better. Scratched—65617 Luretta, 105; 65571 Niblick, 112; 65620 Echo Dale, 106; 65443 Verness, 105; 65627

[Communications without names and addressed of senders will not be answered or noticed.]

J. M., Chicago. The weights required will be published Friday morning.

R. L. G., Detroit, Mich. Not at present, but expect to secure and publish them before long.

F. H., Henderson, Ky. The bookmakers always ompute average on the opening and closing prices, therefore $20 would only win $140 at 6 to 1 opening, and 8 to 1 closing.

O. E. S., Cincinnati, O. The bet on Rebo lost. was on him alone and decided by his running. Had he been scratched it would have been a draw regardless of where his stable mate finished.

C. B. S., Cincinnati, O. If settled on the basis of the opening price A was entitled to $10 place at 10 to 1 and $5 show at 4 to 1. If on the basis of the closing prices he should have been paid a bet of $5 straight, place and show.
